

What others are saying...

I am amazed at how many times the HopeMinute for the day pertains to me. I have written in the past but couldn't walk away without letting you know that again, God has confirmed to me that He loves me, knows my heart, and cares about what I am doing with my life through your daily thoughts.

The George Lopez concert was great. Tom had a great time and after the concert we went backstage and met Mr. Lopez. He talked with Tom for quite awhile and gave him a sweatshirt and signed a book for him. The best was that he did just what you said he would - he told Tom he wanted to see him again next year. Tom was so happy and now has something to look forward to all year! There's nothing better for me than to see him smile. Thank you for making that smile possible!!!

Thank you for all you do, sometimes the HopeMinute is the only thing that gets us through on rough days. God bless you.

Your support and compassion during the most trying and frightening time of our lives made such a difference. I always pray that I will make a difference to at least one person during my time on this earth. You've been blessed to have done that many times over and we all appreciate and love you for it.

I feel like I know you through your HopeMinutes. My daughter, Samantha, is part of the Minnesota chapter. She really wanted to be a HopeKid because several of the kids from Camp Sunshine are HopeKids. We enjoy being a HopeKids family. I personally look forward to the daily HopeMinutes and I want to thank you for your dedication to this organization.

I really appreciate the heart you have for this ministry and everything you do. Just knowing that you care so much for our kids is so encouraging. You don't just say you care - you show that you care. You welcome all with open, encouraging arms. You offer gifts out of love, and that's really what they are: gifts. We don't deserve and are not entitled to any of this, but are fortunate enough that you are here, pouring out love and encouragement to us in some very trying times. We are very grateful to you. And Rachel's day with Aly & AJ is something none of us will ever forget.

What a day it was!!! Noah was running around everywhere, laughing his heart out and having a great time. He went on the jumpy houses, had a horse ride, made the cutest bear and ate cotton candy and icees until his mouth was blue. I love seeing him so happy and energetic when he has so many days where he is throwing up or just lays on the couch. Yesterday was phenomenal and I wanted to thank you for giving Noah, and all the other kids we saw yesterday, such a wonderful day.
